94.7 CYCLE
CHALLENGE

SPONSORSHIP OPPURTUNITY

Rescue is not an easy job for anyone and finding the right homes for the many misunderstood and neglected animals, is a constant challenge. Taking responsibility of these abandoned dogs is expensive and all of these rescue organisations rely solely on fundraising initiatives to bring in the much needed funds, to do what they do on a daily basis.

All dogs that come into their care are rehabilitated, housed, fed, vaccinated, sterilised and microchipped before going to their suitable new homes. As you can imagine, these costs run into the thousands per dog and all assistance relies on the kind help of volunteers.

We assisted Border Collie Rescue & Husky Rescue for the last two year in raising money for their organisations through the Momentum 947 Cycle Challenge and it proved to be very successful. Many of the expenses for this event are large and by joining forces, even more money can be raised and any expenses can be split. This is where Barking Army SA is getting involved, by handling all the admin for this fundraiser as the volunteers of these organisations have their hands full in looking after the many dogs in their care. We aim to make this a valuable and exciting event for riders, sponsors and rescue organisations!

There are various sponsorship opportunities available to individuals and corporates that we have detailed below. Barking Army will be able to provide you with:
